

The Adair County News

VOLUME XII

COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1903.

A frightful runaway occurred on Burkessville Street last Friday afternoon. Rev. J. R. Crawford and his little daughter left their box for the square, in a buggy. When near the Presbyterian church the box became scared and started at a rapid, running over an embankment upsetting the buggy, but fortunately the occupants were not hurt. The box pulled loose from the vehicle and on to the square and was stopped by Staples and Flowers store. All the damage—a wrecked buggy and a skinned places on the horse.

Mr. S. T. Hughes, who recently sold his farm, informed the News last Friday that in all probability would remove to Columbia. It is his intention to permanently locate here, but to remain until he decides where he will purchase a farm or open up business of some other character. Mr. Hughes and family are excellent people and would be valuable acquisitions to this community.

Mr. Lee Grissom purchased last week the residence from J. H. Greener in which the latter resides, the Tutts addition. He then exchanged this piece of property for the place on Greensburg street, owned by Mrs. Sallie M. Shepherd, paying a difference of $200. Mr. Grissom will remove to this last named residence as soon as he can get possession. It is now occupied by Mr. June Picetti.

It was reported here last Thursday that the woods near Elva, this county, were on fire and a great deal of damage was being done to valuable timber. Mr. Jas. Page, of this place, who has a great many staves in that locality, left at once with a number of hands and several axes to save his property.

The meeting which has been in progress at Tabor for the past few days, closed Sunday. There were several conversions during its progress. Rev. R. L. Tally, who did the teaching, goes from Tabor to Frank Valley church to hold a meeting.

What should attract the attention of the people of Adair county the building of the pike from here to Green county line. Of course, who is in charge of it, but solicitors of it could get busy and be ready when the spring comes to begin to work.

Eld. Leslie Bolton will commence a meeting at Dunmore next Sunday. He has been very successful in his evangelistic work during the last few months from Dunmore he will go to the Watson's Chapel, thence to Eckank and Pulaski county.

Mrs. Susan Tucker, who was the wife of Mr. H. H. Tucker, Clay Creek, died Monday last week. She was about 30 years old and had been a consistent member of the Christian Church since early girlhood.

A son of Mr. C. C. Bolton, Knifley, accidentally cut his foot with an axe a few days ago. He has been very dangerous, having caught cold, but he is now thought to be better.

Mr. Frank Sinclair has sold his stock of goods and rented his store house to H. B. Ingram & Sons for one year with the privilege of three. The inventory will be taken the first of January.

Mrs. Amanda Wallace was operated on by Dr. McChord for appendicitis at Lebanon, Monday afternoon. Word from the infirmary states that Mrs. Wallace is doing nicely.

Beginning next Sunday the post office will be opened at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and remain on one-half hour. Persons will govern themselves accordingly.

Rev. J. R. Crawford is preaching a series of sermons at the Presbyterian church this week. The community is cordially invited.

One mile of the pike from Knifley intersecting the Campbellville pike has been completed. This is a stretch of only five miles.

Wm. F. Turner will preach at Mt. Pleasant Church next Sunday forenoon. Every body cordially invited.

Keep your eye on the road times promised by the Republicans in the event of Taft's election.

Turkeys that do not want to be consumed on Thursday the 26th inst., had better roost high.

New corn is selling in this market at from $2.50 to $3.00 per barrel. Shivered.

The post office at Watson, this county, has been discontinued.

The election is over, but the party is still on.

Death of Mrs. Lucien Moore.

It will be remembered that we stated last week that Dr. W. R. Grissom had accompanied Mrs. Lucien Moore to Louisville, the latter to be operated upon for cystic tumors. Mrs. Moore stood the trip to the city very nicely and Friday morning she went under the knife, the physician being Dr. W. H. Wathen, who removed two tumors, the operation being very successful. Dr. Grissom returned home Saturday night and Sunday morning the news of Mrs. Moore's death reached Columbia. She lived about thirty hours after the operation. Besides the tumors Mrs. Moore was otherwise seriously afflicted, and it would have been impossible for her to have lived but a few weeks without an operation. The operation was the last resort to save life.

The remains were embalmed and shipped to this county Monday morning, and in the afternoon all that was mortal of the deceased was buried in Pleasant Hill cemetery, after religious exercises.

Mrs. Moore was a daughter of Marion Edgington, who died many years ago. She was also a niece of Mr. Gathier Bryant, besides she had many other relatives in Adair county. A large circle of friends attended the funeral exercises and burial, every body in the deepest sympathy for the bereaved husband and motherless little children.

The Condition of the Pike.

The pike from here to Campbellville is very rough at this time, and very slow time is being made. Rock has been put on all along the route, but it was crushed too large, and it will be several months before it is beaten down. The heavy loaded wagons stand at the head of the pike, traveling over the sides which have become very dusty, hence when a rain comes, the route from here to Campbellville will be over large rock or through a "lobbly." The only way out of the difficulty would be fine crushed rock over the course. We hope the management will take this matter under consideration and make an improvement in the present slow travel.

A Card.

Editor News:—Will you kindly give notice through the columns of your paper that on account of my health and the burden of the building of the U. B. Church in Columbia, I withdraw my appointment for next Sunday in the Baptist Church, and all appointments in the future indefinitely. The money collecting money for the erection of our Church will call me out of town, and this embarrasses me and the public if I try to keep up a regular appointment. Also, I want to thank the Baptist people for the kind offer of their Church.

A. C. Blake.

Public Sale.

On Thursday the 19th, I will sell all my personal property consisting of brood mares, young horses, good span of 2 year old mules, all farm machinery, household and kitchen furniture, 14 head of cattle and some hogs. Sale at my residence 2 miles from Columbia on Somerset road.

J. S. Naylor.

Mules and Horses.

Will be at Columbia, Ky., on Friday, November 13, 1903, to buy borses and mules. Horses must be from four to eight years old, sound and good flesh; mules from four to eight years old and twelve to sixteen bands high. Will pay the highest market price.

Pemberton Bros.
Henry Altschuler.

New tobacco has been on the market in Louisville for two or three weeks. A gentleman who was in Louisville last week states that he saw a hoghead of ground leaves, Burley tobacco, sell for twelve dollars per hundred. The man who sold it was present, and he said that he concluded to pick up the ground leaves, prize them, and ship to market, to see if that quality of the weed would sell at any price.

Adair Medical Society will meet at Dr. Carter's office Nov. 12, 1903, at 10 a. m. with the following program: Cholera Infantum, Dr. Hancock; Meningitis, Dr. Holland Simpson; Hemorrhoids, Dr. Russell.

W. F. Cartwright,
W. T. Grissom,
R. Y. Hindman,
Committee.

Remember that Pemberton Bros. and Henry Altschuler will be here next Friday to buy mules and horses. See their "ad" in another column.

We learn from Mr. J. F. Montgomery, who came into possession of the information by tradition, that the Mt. Glead country, embracing a part of Green and Adair counties, once contained as citizens, who were farmers, traders, etc., the wealthiest men in this section of country. Many of the wealthy families who resided in this locality, removed to Southern Kentucky long before the war of the rebellion broke out. It is not likely that any of the heads of these families are now living.

Mrs. Amanda Wallace, of Colburn, well known in Columbia, a very estimable lady, left for Lebanon last Friday to be operated upon for appendicitis. Dr. McChord was down to see her a few days before her departure, telling her that an operation was the only relief. It is hoped by Mrs. Wallace many friends that the operation will be successful and that she will soon recover her health.

Mr. John Bell and family, of this place, will leave here today for Huntsville, Ark. Mr. Bell leaves with the intention of coming back in about a year, but says something might turn up to cause him to remain permanently in Arkansas. Mr. Bell has a brother in Huntsville whom he has not seen for twenty-six years, and this trip is made principally to see and with him for a few months.

The meeting at Tabor closed last Sunday night. During its progress Rev. Tally preached strong and convincing sermons. As a result of the meeting the Church was greatly revived, and there were three additions, one to Tabor and two added to the Columbia congregation. Messrs. Leslie Chapman and Mort Wagner joined here and Mr. Bryan Garnett at Tabor.

Woods were afire at a number of points in Adair and Taylor counties last week. It is reported that fire across the river from Dulworth got into Mr. G. W. Redman's cornfield, doing considerable damage. Mr. Redman lives in Campbellville and owns a river farm. It is said a great deal of damage was done near Eunice and the Miller old fields, this county.

The old District School is billed for Thursday evening the 12th inst., at the Court house. There are about forty persons, the older residents of the town who make up the school. It will be very amusing, and doubtless the courtroom will be filled with anxious people, who want to see how a school was taught in the days of "Auld Lang Syne."

Mrs. Georgia Shelton, County Superintendent, has been notified by J. G. Gresham, State Superintendent, that the school money will not be here next Saturday, taxes coming in slowly. It will only be a short time until the check arrives and when it reaches Mrs. Shelton she will notify the teachers through the News.

News announcing the burning of the business house and stock of drugs, the property of Dr. C. M. Murrell, Elida, New Mexico, was received here a few days ago. The loss is estimated at three thousand dollars, insurance, $1,500. We are not informed as to the origin of the fire.

Asbury Chapel, a house erected by the Methodist people, near old Tappan, was dedicated last Sunday. The Chapel was crowded to its utmost capacity, and there were many who stood upon the outside, failing to gain entrance. There was dinner on the ground, sufficient for every body.

Mr. Jason Broadus, of Henryville, Ind., and Miss Flora Cook, of Campbellville, were married in the parlors of the Columbia Hotel last Thursday morning, Eld. Z. T. Williams officiating. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Campbellville.

Robt. Hudson, the baker, has quit running his wagon, and all persons wanting bread will call at the Isenberg corner. He is also conducting a first-class restaurant. Fresh oysters, beef steak, coffee and milk served at all hours up to ten o'clock at night.

Notwithstanding there will be forty-four days until Christmas, the young people have commenced planning for the holidays. It is already announced that a number of young ladies and gentlemen from a distance will be here to spend Christmas week.

Mr. H. C. Fesse was awarded the contract to build a cottage for Mr. J. C. Strange, on Burkessville street. The frame is now up and the building will be completed in a few weeks.

Rev. A. B. Kasey was greeted with large congregations last Sunday afternoon and evening, preaching very entertaining and instructive discourses.

A Cosmopolite.

Mr. Robt. Ball, who many years ago, was well-known in this section, visited at the home of his nephew, Mr. E. F. Chewing, last week. He is now eighty years old and at the age of nineteen. If we are correctly informed, he left this section of the State, traveling almost constantly until two or three years ago when he returned to Green county, and for some months he has been stopping at Greensburg. He is a son of Col. Robert Ball, who built the first court-house in Columbia, the years being 1803-4.

Col. Robt. Ball was a very ardent Baptist, and when the Reform movement was started in this county, seventy or eighty years ago, the principal mover being Uncle Johnny Steel, who left the Baptist Church and joined the Dilectes, called Christians by many. Mr. Ball was the hot bed of people who held to that faith, and debates were frequently held in that church between a Baptist minister and a Christian preacher.

Upon one occasion Eld. Steel went to the church to preach and found the door locked, and he there upon commenced preaching from the steps leading into the church. Col. Ball was present and when Uncle Johnny made some statements that met his disapproval, he took a running shot and tried him the back, with his head, knocking him from the steps.

Graded School.

On the 25th of this month a vote will be taken to determine whether or not a Graded Public School shall be established in the district composed of East and West Columbia. This is a question of vital interest, yet it is not understood by many of the people who will be expected to cast their vote for or against it. The fact is that only a small per cent of the people are familiar with the proposition and only a little over two weeks until it must be settled. We suggest that a meeting be held in the Court house on Thursday for the purpose of giving information that will prepare every one for an intelligent vote. The tax must be increased which is not an inviting prospect for many to take. The location is another proposition that concerns the people and if the proposition is worth introduction it is worthy of a full and free investigation and to determine whether it shall be established or defeated ought to rest on the broadest information possible to give. The News tenders any reasonable amount of space for its discussion and we trust that the people will use it.

A Dozen Don't's.

Don't keep old stock nor drones it don't pay.

Don't let the young cockerels run with the pullets.

Don't forget to save a few barrels of road dust.

Don't put off fixing up the poultry houses till cold weather.

Don't forget to put in one or two cloth windows for fresh air.

Don't forget to put away some green stuff and clover for the winter months.

Don't put your fowls in winter quarters without a thorough cleaning of the floors, roosts and interior.

Don't let the fowls waste the feed—a shallow box with a slat follower will do the business.

Don't forget that a wire screen door is as beneficial in winter, as in summer, for the hen house.

Don't advertise yourself as a specialist, or an expert, if you have not exhibited your stock at the poultry shows.

Don't forget that plenty of fresh air, as well as clean food and fresh water, is essential to good health and prosperity.

Don't let the nesting material remain too long in the nests; fresh straw with tobacco stems, or rice powder, in the nest boxes, is very attractive to "biddy."

Go to Work.

Young man, go to work! There is no time to be idle now.

You must carve out your own way if it is ever successfully carved. You must carve out your own way by energy, perseverance and pluck. Labor is honorable, and the ignoble are those who will not work. Get to work. Fence a field and plant it, and gather the comforts of home.

Mr. Taft--Himself.

The President-elect has an opportunity to make himself a splendid Chief Executive simply by being different from Theodore Roosevelt. A man of poise, dignity and reserve, he will be the stronger President for being himself rather than the proxy of his predecessor. The American people are tired of shouting, screeching, bronco-busting and vaudeville in the White House, and they cast their votes for Mr. Taft despite, rather than because of, his attitude of a "me-too" candidate. They will be a greatly disappointed people if he follows in the Roosevelt path or undertakes to give an imitation of Teddy.

By temperament Mr. Taft is one averse to the practice of rocking the boat. He is not by nature or by practice an agitator. The people evidently were in a mood to say, "Let us alone." They felt that under Mr. Taft the country would be little disturbed by drastic policies or important legislation. They wanted a rest. Mr. Roosevelt was the source of that feeling. Mr. Bryan's promise of sound reforms they construed as a pledge that might prolong the disturbances of the Roosevelt Administration. And so, for a rest they chose Taft.—Louisville Times.

C. C. Pare, the able and fearless editor of the Franklin Favorite, is dead.

Charles Reed, former mayor of Paducah, and a gallant ex-Confederate soldier, is dead.

While practicing target shooting Will Pettit shot and instantly killed Jodie Metz near Frankfort.

The wife of Jeff Taylor, of Trigg county, suicided by drowning herself in a well. Her mind has been unbalanced a year or more.

The body of Will Reynolds was found in Tennessee near Middleboro. Rube Bolton, who is in jail, has confessed to having shot him.

The Illinois and Ohio clubs at Hot Springs, Ark., were raided by the Sheriff and $2,000 worth of gambling devices were seized and burned.

Night riders burned the merchandise store belonging to J. C. McClure, at Sherburne, Bath county. Bloodhounds were taken to the scene.

The body of Dr. F. W. Renick, who disappeared from Big Stone Gap, Va., was found in Powell's River. It is believed he met an accidental death.

John W. Hutchinson, who before the war became famous by singing with other members of his family temperance and abolition songs, died at Lynn, Mass.

Winston Green, a Negro youth was electrocuted in the State penitentiary at Richmond, Va., for attempted criminal assault upon a young white girl of Chesterfield county.

Four night rider suits, with an aggregate total of $200,000 damages sought, are on the docket of the Federal court of the Western district, which will sit at Paducah Nov. 16th.

Mitchell day, which commemorates the ending of the first great coal strike in 1910, was observed throughout the anthracite coal regions, there being almost a suspension of mining.

The Alberta Hotel at Grannis, Ark., burned and George Trammel, of Greenwood, that State, burned to death before many persons who watched the flames destroy the frame structure.

How Much?

Mr. Carnegie, of the Steel Trust, was for Mr. Taft for President.

Mr. Carnegie gave $20,000 of his tariff-made millions to the Republican campaign fund.

Mr. Rockefeller announced that he was for Mr. Taft for President.

How much he gave is not made public.

Senator Foraker has been held up to the public scorn by Mr. Roosevelt for accepting attorney's fees from the Standard Oil Company.

How much did the Republican Committee receive from Mr. Rockefeller or the Standard Oil Committee or both as a corruption fee? Also, if it was immoral for Senator Foraker to receive an attorney's fee from the Standard Oil Company, how could it be right for the Republican Committee to receive favors from it?

Is the trail of the Standard Oil wicked only when it leads to a personal or political enemy of Theodore Roosevelt?

A total of 85 men have been arrested in Tennessee, charged with being implicated in the murder of Capt. Quentin Rankin, at Reelfoot Lake last week. The authorities claim to have strong evidence tending to fix guilt upon some or all of the parties arrested.

In Darkness To The Very End.

The arrival of election day finds the people still in the dark concerning the contributors to the Republican campaign fund. Jealously the republican managers have guarded the books. Steadfastly they have refused to turn on the light. All that is actually known is that Mr. Carnigie, of the Steel Trust, gave $20,000, and that Mrs. Russell Sage gave $1,000. Nothing more have the leaders allowed to leak out. Yet, Mr. Rockefeller is deeply interested in the success of the Republican ticket, he having said so himself; how much did he give?

How much did the Beef Trust give?

How much did the Tobacco Trust give?

How much did the Paper Trust give?

How much did the Sugar Trust give?

How much did the Coal Trust give?

How much did the Steel Trust give?

How much did the Oil Trust give?

If the magnates gave individually, how much did they give? If their Trusts gave, instead, how much did they give? Their desire for the election of Mr. Taft has been made clear. How much have they contributed to accomplish that result? That is what the public would like to know. That is what the public wished to know before election day, so it would not have to grope in the dark and simply guess and suspect.

And so to-day the voters must vote in ignorance of the sources of the Republican funds; in ignorance of the influences that are at work in the Republican party.

The record of the Republican party in this respect is in striking contrast to that of the Democratic party. Mr. Ridder, the Democratic Treasurer, has kept the Democratic pledge. He has taken the public into his confidence. No dark-lantern methods have been used by him. The people have seen that the Democratic funds have come from plain, everyday citizens, who have no axes to grind and no "interests" to be protected.

In 1904 the President denied vehemently that he and the Republican machine were frying fat out of corporations, but afterward it was demonstrated that at the moment he was denying the fat-frying was being done, and that he was even dispatching E. H. Harriman on a collection trip. In 1908 there are secrecy and denials; the people will may wonder what subsequent developments will reveal concerning the 1908 fund!—Louisville Times.

The Democratic Organization in Kentucky.

The story of the fight made by the Democrats in Kentucky reads like it came out of a story book. Without a dollar the Democrats had one of the best organizations the State ever saw.

They actually did not have enough money to buy postage stamps with which to communicate with the voters. Therefore, another plan had to be adopted. In each county a campaign chairman was appointed and he named three workers in each precinct in the county. Chairman Johnson managed to scrape up enough money to buy sufficient stamps to write personally to each of these three men in every precinct. In these letters he instructed each one to select three men to work with him at the polls on election day, to visit personally Democrats weak in the faith and also independent and doubtful Republican voters. Then these twelve were instructed to see that two men in each precinct were selected to have vehicles at each polling place to convey the "blind, the halt and the lame" to the polls. Whenever anyone of these volunteers said he would need some money for expenses. Chairman Johnson communicated with the chairman and told him to see that another man was named, as the Democrats had no money and anything done by any Democrat would have to be out of patriotism and devotion to his party.

As a result in every voting precinct in Kentucky yesterday the Democrats had an organization of fourteen earnest, enthusiastic and hard-working men, spurred on only by a devotion to party principles. The Democratic organization cost only the money spent in postage stamps in making it, and Chairman Johnson says: "Soldiers never showed more real patriotism and fidelity to duty than the members of the Democratic State organization did yesterday."—Louisville Times.

In The Olden Days.

An old lady in New York, celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of her wedding, grew reminiscent. It was 40 years ago, she said, since she had her first clothes wringer, and fluting machines came in about the same time. People then had one dangerous type taken and put in a frame. There were no egg beaters, no carpet sweepers, no faucets, no sewing machines, no street cars, electric lights and numerous other things so common. The kitchen was full of tinware, and notwithstanding the fact that water had to be carried, it must all be kept scoured. But one good thing of those old days, "hired girls" were only paid five dollars, or at most seven dollars per month.

German is Sarcastic.

Dr. Max Moller writes in the Berliner Tageblatt: "In America, the home of the gigantic falsehood, a great swindle once more triumphs." Then he quotes the report of the death (?) of a woman who "remained dead only one hour" and then came back to life and told what she had seen in paradise.

"Possibly," says Dr. Moller, "the physician who certified to the death of this American woman may be able to place some knight of the pen in this transitory death condition, and then a logical, sensible report may be received in this vale of tears from the world of the hereafter."

Notice To Taxpayers.

All taxes that are unpaid on December 1, 1908, are subject to the penalty and cost as fixed by law.

You have had ample time and one notice in which to fix this; and all persons who have not paid before above date, need not expect to be called on but one time for this tax and if not paid upon demand a levy and sale will immediately follow, it matters not who you are. (50-47) W. B. Patton, Sheriff.

Studying Live Stock.

The class in animal husbandry at the State University has been visits this fall to several of the most progressive farms in the bluegrass regions. The first visit was made to Mr. Gano Johnson's horse farm at Mt. Sterling. Another visit was made to the farm of Gay Bros., at Pisgah, and the following Saturday was spent at the cattle farm of Mr. Abram Renick in Clark county. The young farmer carefully examined Signet, the junior champion Shorthorn bull of America, and the other splendid animals owned by Mr. Renick. Later on a visit will be paid to the Elmendorf Shorthorn and Berksire farms near Lexington.—Farmers Home Journal.

Caring For the Ram.

The management that should be given rams, young or old, before and after service will depend largely on the size of the flock. If a strong, well-grown ram lamb runs with a flock of eight or ten sheep which have an ample provision of variable pasture the two may run together during the season of service and it will not be necessary to feed grain. The same will be true of a vigorous shearing ram running with a flock of, say, 12 to 20 ewes. But should the number of the ewes be increased beyond the limit named, then the management should be approximately as stated below.

The rams should be confined to a stable or shed having at the same time access to a paddock. They should be fed good hay and some good green food such as rape or cabbage. They should get in addition from one to two pounds grain per day, according to the service exacted of them, and an ample water supply. Half the grain by bulk may be composed of bran, the other being almost any kind of grain, but preferably oats or wheat.

The ewes should be dry in the yard, say in the morning, the ram turned in with them, single out the ewes in the afternoon. These should be shut up by themselves. Service should be allowed at intervals, than say, two hours, should not be allowed more than one service same ewe, nor to serve three in a day. The ewe should be kept in till the next morning.

After the season of service over the grain ration the ram should be gradually reduced, but it is usually not wise to hold grain altogether during winter. Ram lambs want further development and rams to sustain yield. Thomas Shaw.

Fall Spraying.

It is believed by many that the past summer has been one in which conditions have been favorable to the breeding of the Jose scale. It is predicted that there will, in many places, far more of the scale than the same time last year. To a vigorous and thorough spraying campaign would be planned for and carried out. The San Jose scale will always be with us and we might as well make up our minds to it, and fight it in a business like way. There is no doubt of the fact that scale can be kept in check, but to do it we must use proper methods, materials and machinery.

The used proper labor matter like man who makes a but that is true of a of equal importance will be men who are any line of work, but these not discourage energetic, gent men from taking a very fascinating (and if properly remunerative branch of our work.—Colmans Rural World.

Find your Business.

If you don't nobody will. It is your business to keep out of all the trouble you can and you can and will keep out of liver and bowel trouble. If you take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They clear biliousness, malaria and jaundice from your system. 25c. at Paul's drug.

The Year's Crop.

This country is a big one, the recently published report of the crops show. It is Uncle Sam's ledger will show a yield of 2,565,298,000 bushels of corn or 255,000,000 bushels more than the average corn crop of the ten years ending 1907.

Also estimated yield of wheat is 1,500,000,000 bushels, a big crop, but not as big as the corn crop. More mean a terests and efforts are interwoven and inseparable—they must prosper as one, or suffer together. Trusting that an intelligent, progressive people will not under estimate the worth of an active progressive local paper, the News tips its hat, promising to give the best service to all the people, all the time.

Yours Truly,
THE NEWS.

It may be said that the News had a hard fall in the recent political battle and to be frank it pleads guilty to the charge. We had cherished the hope and courted the belief that the great common people were at heart for political reform; that the power of the mighty trusts, controlling every article of trade, had been duly seen; that the tendency of the times to centralize government at Washington was plainly in view and with all these facts thoroughly known that a change in party was a certainty. In the face of such conditions, strengthened by organized labor and the country wrestling with hard times, coming under Republican rule, we could see victory, certain victory, only clouded by a fear that money might overthrow. The cloud proved to be a veritable storm that swept nearly every thing in front of it and we tell, fell from a high pinnacle and fell hard. Thank God no bones are broken, and in due course of time we hope to be feeling as good as the average citizen. But regardless of the loss of our choice in the National contest, there are victories of less moment to give some cheer. The fact that Kentucky is back with a united Democracy to hold is a happy condition, that Indiana, Ohio, Nebraska and Minnesota elected Democratic officials is also consoling. Our victory is not hurt by the fact its only made a little negative. The battle was the war is not over.

James in speaking of the defeat of Bryan, regretted by all good people he is the greatest generation, but there favors to be thankful Democratic Governors in Nebraska, Ohio and Kentucky back in the Democratic column are things while. Bryan's fight greatest ever known. Much to overcome that to be almost impossible. No other man made such a fight and he is the grandest figure in the people, and the day when the citizenship of the United States will lament the Democratic party in condition now than in years. The result of this is a united party in better position to-day than ever.

county offices. Under the rules the use of money and whisky was positively forbidden, and any candidate detected using such inducements would forfeit the nomination if successful at the polls. For Circuit Judge of the Twelfth district, Judge Chas. C. Marshall, of Shelbyville, was declared the nominee by the district committee, he not having any opposition.

Hon. Ben Johnston, Democratic Representative in Congress from the Fourth district, did not canvass for re-election, but received fifteen hundred votes that were polled for him two years ago. Mr. Johnston was Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee, and he remained at headquarters in Louisville and looked after the party's interest in the whole State. He would make a very excellent Governor.

The Republicans had money in every county in Kentucky, yet the Democrats carried the State by something like ten thousand. Hon. Ben Johnston, who was Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee, states that he could only raise funds sufficient to buy postage stamps, and that the letters he and his associates wrote got up the organization and defeated the Republicans.

The Government's contention that the American Tobacco Company is a trust operating in the restraint of trade and in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, was sustained in decisions handed down by Judges Lacombe, Cox, Noyes in the United States Circuit Court at New York. Judge Ward dissented.

The Indiana Legislature will be Democratic by twelve on joint ballot and will elect a Democrat to the United States Senate. Republicans are still claiming some of their State ticket pulled through. Chairman Jackson, of the State Democratic Committee, still claims Bryan has carried the State.

The Democratic Legislature of Indiana will undertake to send Hon. John W. Kern, the defeated candidate for Vice President, to the United States Senate. The only thing that will keep Mr. Bryan out of the Senate is that the Nebraska Legislature will be Republican.

Taft carried his home state by over 70,000, at the same time the Democrats elected Judge Harmon to be Chief Executive of the State by 20,000 plurality. On these two points fairly complete figures have been received.

The cholera situation in Manila appears to be well under control as a result of the incessant campaign carried on by the health department. The number of new cases reported daily is now reduced to an average of two.

The Republican papers are claiming now that Taft has been elected, that the manufacturing concerns all over the United States will start at once. A little time will tell the tale.

The following is the electoral vote as the returns now show: Taft, 319; Bryan, 156. The eight votes of Maryland are in doubt and it is possible that they will be divided.

Mr. Norris, the Democratic candidate for Governor, of Montana, was elected by a small majority. He is a native of Cumberland county, Ky.

The Democrats will be in the majority in the Indiana Legislature, which means a Democratic United States Senator from that State.

The election of the officers below the Governor has not yet been settled in Indiana. Both sides are claiming them.

There is nothing the matter with Mr. Harriman's stomach. He recently gobbled up another railway system.

Mr. Kehoe, Democrat, claims that he was elected to Congress in the Ninth district, but was counted out.

THE RETURNS.

The following are the unofficial returns from Kentucky by Congressional Districts. There are seven or eight precincts not yet reported from the Eleventh district, and when they are in and the vote is counted by the State Board the majority in the State will be about 10,000:

NEW YORK CITY.

The Success Magazine gives the wonderful statement of the immensity of New York City. It will be of interest to our readers: Wall Street is considered the highest-priced property in the United States. Several years ago it sold for $700 a square foot, and it is assessed by the city at a little over $4 per square inch. There are two banks on Manhattan Island that are open day and night, excepting Sundays and legal holidays. Three sets of clerks and officers in these banks work eight hours each during the day.

The city contains 8,000 lawyers, 5,000 actors, 3,000 actresses, 6,000 artists, 10,000 musicians, 15,000 stenographers, 6,900 salesmen and saleswomen, 1,900 farmers, 1,600 undertakers and 852 female barbers.

Every business day more than one hundred families, or 500 people, are added to its population. There are nearly 400,000 families on the Island of Manhattan. Of this number only a few more than 16,000 own their homes.

In the schools are 720,000 pupils, under the tutelage of more than 12,000 teachers. There are eleven colleges within the city limits with 1,236 instructors and 16,000 students—more college students than in any other city in the world.

William A. Clark, the United States Senator from Montana, owns the costliest private house in the world. It is on the corner of Fifth Avenue and Seventy-seventh Street. It contains 121 rooms and 20 bathrooms, besides a Turkish bath.

The entire island of Manhattan was purchased by Peter Minuit from the Manhattan Indians for $24, or its equivalent in scarlet cloth, brass buttons, and other trinkets. Today the assessable real estate is valued at $5,400,000,000.

The population is now 4,900,000. London's population is 5,500,000 more, but New York is growing seven times as fast as the British metropolis, and should become the largest city in the world inside of ten years. The population increases at the rate of five to one, compared with the increase of the rest of the country.

The cost to run this great city is more than that of any other municipality. There are nearly 60,000 people on the city's payroll. To keep the peace there are 7,200 special officers and watchmen. Over 3,000 men are employed by the Fire Department, and that part of the city which goes up in smoke every year amounts to nearly $80,000,000.

Absher.

Health of this community is generally good.

Little Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Hendrickson, spent last week with his grand parents, of this place.

Eld. M. R. Gabbart filled his regular appointment at Egypt the first Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Absher, were the pleasant guest of Mr. Burton Bryant Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Ethyl Russell and children are spending a few days at Mrs. Elizabeth Cowley's.

Mrs. Mary L. Cooley visited relatives at this place Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Feese visited relatives in Green county Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. Tom and Burton Humphreys were at Mr. W. A. Humphreys Sunday night on their way to Columbia.

Mr. W. P. Dillingham is sinking a well on his premises.

Miss Bertha Dillingham was the pleasant guest of Miss Susie Kate Page, of near Cane Valley, Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Flora Grant spent Monday night with Arva Cave.

Misses Mary and Florence Grant were the pleasant guests of Audra Dillingham last Sunday.

Sunday, Oct. 25, Mr. Loy Feese and Miss Nellie Thomas were quietly married. Rev. John Rice officiated. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple went to the groom's parents: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Feese. The groom is an industrious young farmer and is quite popular with his many friends. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Thomas. She too, is popular with her many acquaintances, and will be greatly missed by the young people of this place. Neither Mr. or Mrs. Feese have reached twenty years of age. We trust that their days may be long upon this earth and happiness may attend them through life.

Irvin's Store.

Last night was the coldest so far—ice forming half inch thick. Wells and springs going dry. Uncle Dry Jeffries was here yesterday. No cattle for him to buy but he took all the eggs he could get.

Mr. Cooper came down from Nancy to vote—But real was not needed.

There is a new boy at Squire Tarter's.

Mr. George Sullivan and our best young men is very scarce, and not expected to recover.

Mrs. Ida, wife of Oth Blair, is very low with typhoid fever. We are glad to see M. J. C. Wilson out after a long illness.

The returns from electors are slow coming in. But oppose the Trusts shelled out enough of their millions to save that party which made and protect them.

We have heard a certain class of people cry hard times make an excuse for not paying their doctor bills, and all the kind of bills (except Bill aft.) roll. To keep the peace there and yet those same fellows to the polls and vote for thirty, that produces the hard times. But the time has abounded when such people will grithelp or pay their bills they go.

If we had more papers like the Adair County News, to test the people, (those who will be teaching) the result will be different. Long may it lead Democratic doctrine.

Ono.

The health of the community was never better.

Corn gathering and haying saw logs to river is now the order of the day.

Herschel Dunbar and wife are visiting at Bryan, to see that her brother, Joe, who is confined to his bed with pneumonia.

Messrs. Pulliam & Bradshaw were here a few days ago, of interest of the Gulf Red Oak Co., who did some business with our citizens.

Well, Bryan is beaten this time, but where is Kentucky? Done and gone and got himself redeemed of the plague of 1907. Hurrah! for Old Kentucky.

On Saturday, Oct. 31, Javed-down Ball team came over and played Ono team. Score stood 5 in favor of Ono boys. Some said they could not play, or they would have played last half of the inning which belonged to Ono. Come again boys when you have practiced enough to play.

THE STANDARD ROTARY

Shuttle Sewing Machine

It is the best for general use because it will do more kinds of work, and do it better, faster and more easily than any other machine made. It is the only machine that makes either the two-thread lock-stitch or the single-thread chain-stitch perfectly on the same machine.

It is the fastest sewer, making 25 stitches while others make 10. You can do your sewing in one-third less time.

It runs decidedly easier and faster than any other style shuttle. It requires only two movements of the treadle to three on other machines in sewing the same length seam, one-third less foot work. The Ideal Standard Rotary sewing mechanism and ball bearings make it work twice as long as old style machines.

By greater usefulness, and universal satisfaction for 24 years, it has proven its superiority and supremacy.

The Standard Rotary will surprise and delight you. The article design and elegant finish will surely please you. See it TODAY. You are welcome, whether you buy or not.

Jo Coffey, Jr., Treasurer, Town of Columbia, Ky.

Gradyville.

We have had a little ice, on the creek here.

The weather continues dry and a little bit cold.

Several of our citizens have slaughtered their hogs.

The majority of our farmers are claiming that the corn crop in this section of the county is no better than it was last season.

W. L. Grady was in Columbia last Monday on business.

Our town was visited several wild geese one night last week passing by.

If we don't have prospect now, we will be greatly disappointed.

The work on Geo. H. Bell's new dining room is progressing nicely.

Mr. Bud Walker of Nel was in our midst one day last week, and reported every thing quiet in his community.

Mr. D. C. G. informed your reports that Tim Corbin, who cultivated his farm this year has raised one hundred and fifty barrels of corn.

Mr. A. W. Tarter, of Columbia, was shaking hands with the business men of our town last Friday.

Messrs. Biddle & Parson our efficient mill men, reported their business increasing daily, and it goes without saying their flour in good demand and giving universal satisfaction.

Apch Wilmore was on the sick a few days of last week.

Mr. R. L. Caldwell, of Milltown community, was the guest of Mrs. C. O. Moss a day or so last week.

Mrs. W. M. Wilmore and her daughters, Misses Clara and Aud, visited the family of M. Grissom at Bliss, one afternoon last week.

Rev. Johnston filled his regular appointment here last Sunday with an interesting discourse.

The majority of our farmers are claiming that the corn crop in this section of the county is no better than it was last season.

Messrs Will Wilson and P. V. Grisson, two popular drummers of Columbia, were shaking hands with our merchants last Friday.

W. L. Grady handed your reporter a letter that he had just received from F. C. Newton, of Fayetteville, N. C., stating that he wanted to buy a peacock colt, regardless of price.

Mr. Mackin & Phillips of Lebanon, had sold to Captain Ramon, of Washington, City, one Peacock gelding for $350. This horse is said to be one of the finest saddle horses that ever left Adair county.

There was three very sensational things happened here on the day of our last election (to-wit.) Uncle Geo. Flowers, one of our oldest citizens, who has been a life long Republican never was known to vote any other way only the straight ticket and was one of the first to cast his vote, made a mistake and only voted for one Republican elector. An other was Mr. W. W. Sexton, a life long republican came up and voted and no doubt was feeling extremely well from the outside appearance of his parties success in this great election challenged some one for a wrestle which was accepted by one, Cager Jones formerly of Columbia, who gave him such a fall that rendered him unconscious for several hours, but with the medical skill of Dr. L. C. Nell and the assistance of his many friends he was brought to his consciousness after several hours treatment. The Democrats on first sight of Mr. Sexton wanted to know whether he had voted or not. An other was after the reports began to come in that Mr. Bryan was elected, Mr. Thos. Garner one of the staunch Democrats of this section stepped off of Wilmore & Moss platform a distance of four or five feet rendering him unconscious. Dr. L. C. Nell also tried his hand on a Democrat and his treatment was found to be good for both Democrats and Republicans on the election day. With the three exceptions the day passed off quietly, and we Democrats did the very best we could. We feel that we discharged our duty, fought a good fight

For a Vote on the Graded School Proposition.

Adair County, Ky., Sect.
County Court,

Oct. term, Oct. 5th, 1906.

Hon. Junius Hancock, Judge, day the petition of A. G. Todd hers filed at the last regular term court came on for further hearing it appearing that said petition signed by more than the legal and tax payers residing in the said graded common school district and was approved by the County intendent of schools and the trustees in the districts named below. It is ordered that said proposed graded common school district be fixed to embrace the same boundary as is embraced by the East Columbia School District, and West Columbia School District, No. 36 which is as follows, viz:
beginning at Bud Vaughan's place on Columbia and the Jamestown road including his land, thence to and including the Milt Judd place, thence to including the Conover farm now owned by Scott Montgomery, thence to said creek at the nearest point above down same to the mouth of Sullar Creek, thence to and including the N. Murrell place, thence to the mouth of Disappointment Creek, thence to and excluding the old Ingram farm, thence to and excluding J. W. Hurt, thence to and including the Alvin Brown farm, thence to the mouth of Butter's Branch, thence down Russell Creek to and excluding the Cook farm, thence to and excluding W. T. McFarland farm, thence to the Greensburg road, thence to and excluding G. B.
Smith, thence to and including R. R.
Conover, thence to and excluding Sylvester Bennett, thence to and excluding the Scott Montgomery farm, thence to and including Ole Conover, thence to the Bud Vaughan place, the beginning.

It is now ordered that an election be held in said proposed common school district on Saturday, the 28th day of November, 1906, for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal white voters in said proposed common school district upon the proposition whether or not they will vote an annual tax of forty cents on each one hundred dollars of taxable property assessed in the said proposed graded common school district, belonging to said white voters or corporations and a poll tax of one dollar per capita on each white male inhabitant over twenty years of age residing in the said proposed graded common school district, for the purpose of maintaining a graded common school in said proposed graded common school district, and for the purpose of raising, levying and repaying suitable buildings therefor if necessary. The Sheriff is ordered and directed to open a poll in said proposed graded common school district and hold said election first giving notice of same as required by law, and he will at the same time open a poll and hold an election for the election by said voters of five trustees for said proposed graded common school district.

A copy. Attest. T. R. Stultz, Clerk,
By M. E. Stultz, D. C.

In obedience of the foregoing order I will on November 28, 1906, between the hours of 7 a. m. and 4 p. m., in the Court house in Columbia, Ky., cause the poll to be opened and an election held for purposes named in the foregoing order. Witness my hand, this October 19, 1906. W. E. Patterson, Sheriff of Adair county.

is Your Digestion.

Mrs. Mary Dowling of No. 228 8th Ave., San Francisco, recommends a remedy for stomach trouble. She says:
"Gratified for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters in a case of acute indigestion prompts this testimonial. I am convinced that for stomach and liver troubles Electric Bitters is the best remedy on the market to-day." This tonic and alterative medicine regulates the system, purifies the blood and is especially helpful in all forms of female weakness. 50c. at Fall Culling.

Culling in the poultry yard should be in progress every month of the year until the flock is as nearly uniform in quality as it is possible to be, but the bulk of the culling is necessarily done in the fall, and now is the time to do it.
Culling is necessary not only for the appearance of the flock as a whole, but also to make it possible to feed to best advantage. If there are undersized, badly shaped, off colored birds in the flock, they are just as sure to be the ones in evidence when a buyer comes as are the small potatoes to shake to the bottom when a crate of potatoes is taken to the store. The man who comes to look at your chickens has the same pained look when he comes upon poor specimens that the grocer has when the potatoes are turned out leaving the small ones on top. -Wallaces' Farmer.
